BANK OF HAWAII

Promotion in YOUR life ought to be as it is with the Loy Scouts.

To go from "tenderfoot" to "First-Class Scout" they have to earn and SAVE a certain sum of money.

Why not make the same rule as to your own conduct? Make up your mind that each business promotion you earn will also see a larger sum to your credit in the Bank of Hawaii.

You see, no man knows when that "rainy day" will arrive, and—!

ORDERS OF THE HAWAIIAN DEPT.

July 7, 1914.

Special Orders No. 126.

1. Under exceptional circumstances, leave of absence for one month and 22 days, with permission to leave the department, to take effect upon arrival at San Francisco, Cal., of the August transport, is granted Capt. George M. Apple, commissary, 1st F. A. Schofield Barracks, H. T.

Attention is invited to the requirements of General Orders No. 196, War Department 1907, and General Orders No. 42, series 1-13, these headquarters. (8635.)

2. Private Donald E. Lowry, 195th Company, Coast Artillery Corps, Fort Ruger, H. T., will proceed to this city, reporting on arrival to the department adjutant, for duty as telephone switchboard operator, at those headquarters.

There being no public quarters available and it being impracticable to assign this soldier to any organization for rations, the quartermaster corps will provide suitable quarters and commute his rations at the rate of $1 per day while on this duty.

The quartermaster corps will furnish the necessary transportation. The journey is necessary for the public service.

3. 2nd Lieut. Robert C. F. Goetz, 1st Field Artillery, aide-de-camp, will make not to exceed four trips from this city to Schofield Barracks, H. T., and return, for the purpose of attending target practice with the 1st Field Artillery.

The travel directed is necessary in the military service.

July 8, 1914.

The quartermaster corps will furnish the necessary transportation. The journey is necessary for the public service.

2. Private Emil A. Wohlfeil, Company L, 2nd Infantry, Fort Shafter, H. T., is transferred to the quartermaster corps, at that post. (D.Q.M. 1097-309.)

TUMMITY, TUM, TUM;

AND COWS GIVE MILK

[By Latest Mail]

PORT JERVIS, N. Y.—George Rensco, who controls a large dairy near here, bought a second-hand phonograph, which has proved to be one of the best instruments he has in his dairy. Farm hands fooling with the instrument set it going one night and the 50 Holstein cows gave so much more and better milk than usual and were so quiet and docile that they have tried it several nights since with amazing results. The cows are so trained now they await their evening concert and masticate their food much better, and the farm hands, when through milking, amuse themselves with some tango steps that are real up to date.

OCEAN ROMANCE

NOW BADLY WRECKED

[By Latest Mail]

SAN FRANCISCO.—With the filing of an action for divorce by Mrs. Essie Mead Nicholson against James Nicholson, a strange sea romance involving "gun plays" and an attractive Los Angeles widow came to a close. The marriage took place at the Palace Hotel December 19 last, after the couple had tried in vain to persuade the captain of the steamship Sierra to marry them at sea.

Only two months before the matrimonial event James Nicholson, scion of a wealthy family of Hollywood, Cal., and Pittsburgh, Pa., was having a fervent affair of the heart with Mrs. Elizabeth Carhart of Los Angeles, widow of Robert Carhart.

The course of their love did not run smoothly, and Nicholson sought to persuade his fiancée to enter a suicide pact with him. She declined, and he discharged his revolver in her apartment. Mrs. Carhart ran from the rooms, 435 South Grand avenue, Los Angeles, screaming that Nicholson had tried to kill her. He spent a night in jail, but on the following day was released when Mrs. Carhart appeared and said the shot had not been fired at her.

Returning from Honolulu last December, Nicholson became acquainted with Miss Essie Mead, a stewardess on the Sierra, and, after a courtship of two days, they became engaged. Failing to effect a sea wedding they were married two hours after landing here.

The hasty marriage proved unhappy for Mrs. Nicholson, according to the complaint filed yesterday by Attorney L. P. Sweeney. Nicholson, the plaintiff declared, would begin the day with heavy drinking, continuing into the small hours of the morning, insisting that his bride remain awake and entertain him, or, as he put it, "entertain him to his own destruction."

Nicholson would have her to make a fire and cook, which frequently he is alleged to have done. Nicholson would have her to have remained in the city, and he would have her to have remained in the city.

INVESTIGATION OF INTER-ISLAND READY TO CLOSE

With the announcement made by Acting Chairman J. N. S. Williams at a meeting of the Public Utilities Commission yesterday afternoon to the effect that the residents of Hawaii and Maui have no complaints of import against the Inter-Island Steam Navigation Company, the commission now is in a position to bring its investigation of the business affairs of the company to a speedy end.

Thus far, no date has been set for the final hearing in the investigation, said Chairman Williams this morning. Commissioners Williams and Gignoux probably will confer on the matter within the next two or three days and arrange for the meeting which will be a public one.

Back business covering a period of about six weeks was cleared up by the commission yesterday, the business consisting largely of accidents recorded by the Rapid Transit and the Kahului Railway Company. A report was read from the latter to the effect that two Japanese stevedores were injured May 30 during the loading of the Virginian at the Maui port. One of the stevedores died and the other is now recovering. The Mutual Telephone Company reported that on June 7 a fireman, Manuel Baptista, fell from a pole and was injured. He was cared for at the company's expense and recovered. Reports from the Rapid Transit follow:

Week ending May 30, eight accidents; week ending June 6, nine accidents; week ending June 13, eight accidents; week ending June 20, two accidents; week ending June 27, eight accidents; week ending July 4, five accidents.

JOHN C. ANDERSON ASKS FOR VOTES AS TREASURER

John C. Anderson, whose intention to run for county treasurer was made public some time ago, now issues the following statement:

"To the voters of the City and County of Honolulu:

"I have the pleasure of hereby announcing my candidacy for nomination on the Republican ticket to the position of city and county treasurer. I stand ready to abide by the rules and principles of the party, which will be promulgated soon, and to carry out the duties of the office in accordance with law and to the best interests of the people.

"I ask respectfully for the support of the people to my candidacy to this office, an office I feel I am, by reason of my educational training and experience, well qualified to fill.

"Respectfully yours,

"JOHN C. ANDERSON."
